Gerald Martin General Contractor Announces New President

The Board of Directors of Gerald A. Martin Ltd. announced that it has promoted Fred Gorenz to the position of President of Gerald Martin General Contractor. Mr. Gorenz has been with GMGC since its inception in 1974 and became a partner in the firm in 1983. As the Executive Vice President of Business Development for over 20 years, he has been instrumental in engineering much of the growth of Gerald Martin General Contractor into what is now one of the largest locally owned and operated commercial construction companies in the State of New Mexico. The company is known for constructing some of the area's most notable landmarks such as: the Albuquerque International Balloon Museum, the Roy E. Disney Centre for the Performing Arts, and the Sun Center Professional Office Complex. Gerald Martin General Contractor is also building the new Rio Rancho City Hall.
